SMITH ACADEMY

EDITOR'S LETTER

Now that your "Echo" has arrived, you will be reliving the past school year and recalling all the memorable events. This is the first year that the "Echo" has donned stiff covers! The entire staff awaits your approval. Also notice the addition of such selections as the Class Banquet, Class Day, Graduation Formal Picture, Graduation Program, and candid. I hope you think that the hard work of the entire staff has been well worth its while.

I would especially like to say thanks for the wonderful work done by the Business Manager, Sandra Jablonski; Candid Editor, Shirley Widelo; Art Editor, Cynthia Karakula; and Photography Editor, Nancy Baceski. They were always willing to work on the yearbook and trying to make this one the best ever!

Special thanks goes to Mrs. Spakowski, our advisor, and other faculty members, who showed so much co-operation and enthusiasm toward our yearbook.

Again may I say, that I, along with the entire staff, hope that you enjoy the yearbook.

Sincerely,

Barbara J. Goclowski

DEDICATION

In grateful appreciation, we the class of "1960" dedicate this, our yearbook, "The Echo" to you, John F. Symancyk.

During the four years we have been with you, you have directed us with sound judgment and wise counsel. We respect you as a fine teacher and a wonderful man. In times to come, we hope you will help others as you have helped us.

Therefore, it is with deepest humility and gratitude that we dedicate "The Echo" to you as a memorial to what you have done for us.

SUPERINTENDENT AND PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

JOHN A. SKARYZNSKI

"Remember Class of 1960, as you leave Smith Academy, whether you go to further your education or whether you seek employment for what might be your life-time profession, you are to become the future citizens and leaders of our nation. The strength of a democracy lies in the integrity of its citizens. Even in this space age, a life of character is a life dominated by true moral principles. The true leader knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way. The glory of our nation has been, that, in times of crisis, gifted citizens arise who, with a total commitment to the welfare of the nation, ignore personal popularity, and often financial gain, to serve the ends of justice. With these thoughts in mind, go and take your place in this ever changing world and may God bless you in your every endeavor."

THIS IS YOUR LIFE — CLASS OF 1960

In 1956, you were one of the thirty-three timid freshmen entering Smith Academy. Since then the school has never had a dull moment. You were very happy to welcome two new pupils: Patty Molloy, a transfer from Northampton, and Sondra Kellogg, a transfer from Williamsburg. Under the trustworthy leadership of your class advisor, Mr. Symancyk, you held your first class meeting to elect your officers for the forthcoming year: President, Kenneth Kulesza; Vice-President, Richard Sadoski; Secretary, Betty Stempel; Treasurer, Edward Malinowski; and Student Council Representative, James Majeskey. After becoming accustomed to your environment, you were allowed to put on your first dance on April 26 which was a complete success. As the ending of your freshman year drew near, many of you were thinking how fast the year had gone by and about all the wonderful and eventful days to be remembered forever.

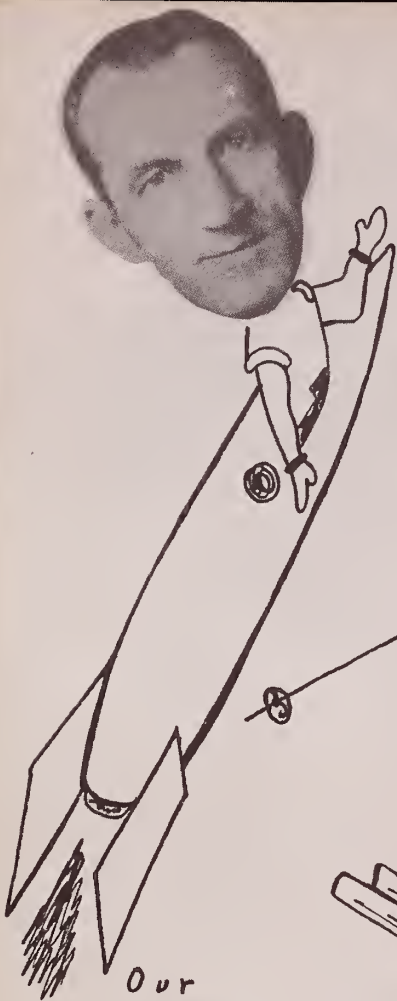

After a restful summer, you came back to pick your class officers for the Sophomore year. They were: President, Kenneth Kulesza; Vice-President, Patty Molloy; Secretary, Barbara Goclowski; Treasurer, James Majeskey; and Student Council Representative, Edward Malinowski. John Karakula joined your class in September and you very glad to welcome him. Remember how excited you all were the day you received your class rings? How thrilled you felt to have the security of belonging to Smith Academy and be part of its functions! That was the year you put on two school activities: The Autumn Leaves Hop and the Lollipop Hop. Many of your classmates went out for sports and did a fine job!

Entering in September as a Junior gave you a sense that you were growing up and would soon be on your own in this wide world with many responsibilities. Class officers were elected: President, James Majeskey; Vice-President, Barbara Goclowski; Secretary, Patty Molloy; Treasurer, Sondra Kellogg; and Student Council Representative, Barbara Filipek and Kenneth Kulesza. You lost two students and gained two: Shirley Niksa, a transfer from Northampton High School, and John Baker, a transfer from Frontier Regional. That year you were in charge of initiating the humble Freshmen by having them perform ridiculous stunts and long speeches. In the middle of this unforgettable year, each one of you Juniors was required to deliver a declamation before the entire student body. Ten of you lucky people were then chosen to say your declamations at the Town Hall with Sondra Kellogg and Kenneth Kulesza coming to the top as the winners! You then adjourned this year with the Junior Prom "Rhapsody in Blue." The hall was beautifully decorated in various shades of blue.

Then it came - your Senior year! Your classmates elected to serve as your class officers were: President, James Majeskey; Vice-President, Paul Labbee; Secretary, Barbara Novak; Treasurer, Sondra Kellogg; and three Student Council Representatives, Barbara Goclowski, Robert Dulaski, and Kenneth Kulesza. One of the highlights of this year was the Senior Play entitled "Class Ring." You will certainly never forget your Washington Trip with its picturesque sights and unforgettable times. On Commencement day, you stood on the stage of the Town Hall, wearing graduation caps and gowns, and waiting for the moment when you would receive your diploma. Like all other Senior classes, you were sorry to leave, but eager to start your life in this great world.

Smith Academy compiled a tremendous record of twenty-two wins against only two defeats on the hardwoods this year. The Falcons, while running up this tremendous record, captured the Hampshire League Crown, then stunned many schoolboy followers by winning the upset Western Massachusetts Tournament. The Falcons closed the season when they lost a heartbreaker in the opening round of the New England Tournament. A multitude of credit is given to the great Coach, Mr. John A. Skarzynski.

Although the girls' basketball team did not have a winning season, the players never lacked the courage or determination to give their opponents a good fight.

The most exciting game of the year was a four point win over Huntington, during which the girls were under constant pressure from lack of time.

Managers B. Filipek and M. Osley did a creditable job.

CHEERLEADERS

The girls, uniformed in striking purple corduroy skirts and weskits set off with gold buttons, did a fine job of leading the cheering section throughout the year. The squad was under the capable direction of their advisor, Mrs. Florence Muller. They were also helped greatly by Mitchie Stefancik and Georgie Ripka.

The Glee Club had another enjoyable year of music under the direction of Mrs. Esther Norris and Mrs. Florence Muller of the faculty.

The first event to take place was during Christmas time and the Smith Academy Glee Club and members of the Center School participated in it. It was about Christmas in Many Lands.

The second event was a Spring Concert held May 6 in which both schools again took part. This time the music was from different eras of time to the present.

JUNIOR PROM

The theme of the prom was "Rhapsody In Blue" with blue and silver predominant in the color scheme. The centerpiece was a blue-roofed wishing well, with a star studded enclosure set in a flower filled patio. On the stage a deep blue sky with a silver moon formed the background for the queen's silver throne and silver steps led up to her throne.

THESPIANS

Bucala, J. Ryan.

The Thespians presented the three-act comedy, "Class Ring."

N. Baceski - Toby, whose problems grew out of wearing Brose's class ring.

J. Majeskey - Brose, owner of the ring.

T. LaBelle - Kip, a talented high school actor.

A. Cechvala - Dick, a suave and polished college man.

C. Maslanka - Kay, a shy girl Dick finally discovered.

Others in the play included: B. Goclowski, R. O'dea, S. Kellogg, C. Pickett, M. Omasta, P. Labbee, M. Rogaleski, B. Filipek, D. Byrne, F. Kempisty.

WASHINGTON TRIP

Thursday, April 14

Well, Thursday did finally come!!! It was a beautiful day to start a trip to Washington. By 9:30, thirty-one of us and our chaperon, Mr. Moczulewski, with the group from Hopkins and their chaperone, Miss Jacobus, were at the Northampton station anxiously awaiting the train. Our trip officially began when we met the Chester group and their chaperone in Springfield. Lunch on the train was eagerly awaited by all. After a hot, tiring, bumpy ride, we arrived in Baltimore, Maryland, at 5:45, where, motor coaches transferred us to the Old Bay Line pier where we boarded the City of Norfolk for an overnight sail to Norfolk, Virginia. Staterooms were assigned, and dinner was served en route. The evening was spent getting acquainted.

Friday, April 15

Everyone aroused cheerfully at 6:00 with a bright outlook for the day to come. We had breakfast aboard our steamer, City of Norfolk, and then boarded a bus for our pleasant trip to Williamsburg. At Williamsburg, we saw an interesting movie about restoring the colonial site and went on a guided tour which included; the old Capitol where Patrick Henry made his famous speeches and the Gaol where Blackbeard's pirates were imprisoned. While in Williamsburg, we ate dinner at the Colonial Restaurant, and then traveled to Jamestown and Yorktown. After a day of sight-seeing, we journeyed back to our boat at the Norfolk Pier. On boat, we ate supper and enjoyed an evening to ourselves. During the night, our boat ventured to Baltimore.

Saturday, April 16

Still traveling by boat, we all arose early full of vim and vigor to eat breakfast at 7:00 in the dining hall. Then, at 8:00 we were on our way to Washington by the motor coaches. En route to Washington, we stopped to see the Franciscan Monastery, the newly built Immaculate Conception Church, and passed by the White House. We then arrived at the Annapolis Hotel, where we checked our baggage and were served lunch. After lunch, we went on a guided tour, which covered many interesting sites, such as the United States Capitol, the Supreme Court, and the Smithsonian Institute. After touring all day, we returned to the hotel to freshen up before supper. We had the night to ourselves and everyone took advantage of it.

Sunday, April 17

After a sleepless night, Easter Sunday, a beautiful sunny day was one of our busiest days. At seven, everyone went to his respective church and attended services. At 10:00, following breakfast at the hotel, we left for an interesting tour of residential Washington. After we crossed the Potomac River, we found ourselves in Virginia. Our first stop was at Arlington Cemetery to see the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and the changing of the guards, and then to the famous Marine statue. Lunch was served at the famous Pen-Daw Restaurant. Traveling over the Mount Vernon Memorial Highway, we visited the famous home of George and Martha Washington, where we spent the remainder of the afternoon. Returning for dinner at the hotel, we then took a night tour to the Lincoln Memorial and the Archives Building where we saw the original copy of the Declaration of Independence, the Bill of Rights, and the Constitution of the United States. After we returned to the hotel, we had the evening to ourselves.

Monday, April 18

After having breakfast at the hotel, we then visited the Bureau of Engraving and Printing where we saw the printing of U. S. stamps, bonds, and paper money. We then went to the Washington Monument and many of us climbed to the top. After returning to the bus, we went to Union Station for lunch. Departing from the station at 12:45 via the Pennsylvania Railroad, we arrived in New York at 4:35. We were then transferred by motor coaches to the Taft Hotel on 7th Avenue, at which time rooms were assigned. Following dinner at Maisel's Restaurant, we attended the Broadway Hit "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" at Radio City Music Hall. After the show we had the evening to ourselves, and many of us took full advantage of a night in New York.

Tuesday, April 19

Tired, we got up at 8:00 and had breakfast on our own. At 10:00, we had a choice of either going shopping or to the United Nations for a guide conducted tour. Here the group was split, but then joined for lunch at Maisel's Restaurant. At 2:00, we went by motor coaches for a guided tour of Downtown New York, passing through Wall Street, the Bowery, Chinatown, Fulton Fish Market, and the East Side. The motor coaches then transferred us to Grand Central Station and departure from New York at 5:05. Dinner was served aboard the train. We arrived in Springfield at 8:04 and waited for the train to Northampton until 8:30. We arrived at Northampton at 8:54 safe and sound, but everyone was exhausted from touring and insufficient sleep. All in all, everyone enjoyed themselves and would love to have the chance to go again next year.

CLASS WILL

This is the last will and testament of the graduating class of 1960. The will reads as follows:

BARBARA GOCLOWSKI leaves her diamond ring to Carol Banas who would certainly enjoy it.

RUSSELL BROWN leaves his Indian reservation on Prospect Street to Frank Kempisty who is a better fit for wigwams.

SANDRA JABLONSKI leaves her talkativeness to Mary Ann Osley.

JOHN HOFFMAN leaves his real red hair to Barbara Yarrows.

SANFORD BELDEN leaves his excess muscles to Robert Omasta.

JOHN BAKER leaves his guitar talents to Edward Korza.

JOSEPH KALENTEK leaves the drug store telephone to David Rudy.

ROBERT DULASKI leaves his lucky pen to next year's basketball scribe.

RENEE MAGNIN leaves her gum chewing in shorthand to Judy Porada.

PAUL LABBEE leaves his bongo drums to George Osley.

SONDRA KELLOGG leaves her cheering ability to Joanne Zembiski.

SHIRLEY WIDELo leaves her height to Connie Zack (she needs it.)

KENNETH KULESZA leaves his basketball turban to Charlie Symanski.

CYNTHIA KARAKULA leaves her ability to charm South Deerfield boys to Joan Goller.

BARBARA FILIPEK leaves her A's in French to John Ryan.

ROBERT NOVAK leaves his moonglasses to Marty Wilkes.

RICHARD O'DEA leaves his stubbornness to Peggy Wilkes.

RICHARD SADOSKI leaves his shorthand ability to Robert Slysz.

KATHRYN RUDY leaves her shyness to Paula Paciorek.

JAMES SOUTHARD leaves his problems class jokes to David Byrne.

ANTHONY SYMANSKI leaves his blushing ability to Billy Burke.

JAMES MAJESKEY leaves his conceitedness to Albert Cechvala.

MICHAEL YANGINSKI leaves his artistic ability to Raymond Trembly.

EDWARD MALINOWSKI leaves his basketball ability to John Ryan.

JOHN KARAKULA leaves his extra cigars to Tom LaBelle.

PATRICIA MOLLOY wants to leave her 6' 2" pictures of Ted Williams to somebody; but no one wants them.

SHIRLEY NIKSA leaves her ping-pong paddles to Clare Galenski.

BARBARA NOVAK leaves her office job to Cookie Bucala.

MERLE OMASTA leaves her wild time on the Washington trip to Danny Snook.

FRANCES PELIS leaves her temper to Judy Kempisty.

NANCY BACESKI leaves her party throwing ability to the freshman girls. (Remember her 8th grade graduation party?)

The Class of 1960 leaves to:

MRS. PRUZYNski - another commercial boy group as outstanding as this one.

MRS. MULLER - a round trip ticket to Paris.

MRS. BISSLAND - a year so that she can control the aisles.

MRS. SPAKOWSKI - a boys' economic class.

MISS RYAN - a typewriter so that the students won't have to write so much in class.

MRS. HOLDSWORTH - glue so she won't have to drop pencils and chalk for boys to pick up.

MR. SKARYZNSKI - a whip to wield his power.

MR. SYMANCYK - one spare catcher's mask, which was lost in the Westfield Trade game.

Being of sound mind and body, we hereby do certify that this is the last will and testament of the Class of 1960.
